This Issue of "The Cap and Seal" is lovingly dedicated to
Our Faculty

They have given us freely of themselves—have been alert to our joys and sorrows, and to our preparation for the tasks now ours and those that await us.

They have taught us to see the beauty in the common things of life, to face the boundless joys of service.

We have had the privilege of their counsel, influence, and love.

May our faithfulness to the lives for which they have endeavored to fit us express our gratitude and appreciation.

*WE LIVE in deeds, not years; in thoughts,
not breaths;
In feelings, not in figures on a dial.*

*We should count time by heart-throbs. He most lives
Who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best.*

—PHILIP JAMES BAILEY.

FOREWORD

We publish our CAP AND SEAL to give you a glimpse of our happy days in the San Francisco Hospital School of Nursing. May you who read it realize the loyal and true school spirit we have helped to create.

If this book serves then to illustrate to you, even for a moment, the happiness and achievement we have gained here, it will have fulfilled its mission.

Embodied in this 1930 edition of
CAP AND SEAL you will find

SO LONG as men shall be on earth
There will be tasks for them to do,
Some way for them to show their worth;
Each day shall bring its problems new.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT'S PROGRAM

By DR. WILLIAM C. HASSLER

Health Officer, San Francisco Board of Health

 THE HEALTH BONDS having been adopted by the people by a very substantial majority on November 6 last, the Board of Health is now proceeding as rapidly as circumstances will permit to carry out the intent of the voters. While the money from the bonds is not yet available, and probably will not be for some time to come, the Board of Health feels that it is necessary to proceed and lay out at least some sort of a preliminary program to meet the issue.

At a meeting between members of the Board of Health and a number of physicians interested in psychiatry and cancer study, held on November 26, an extended discussion was had in regard to the type of building that should be erected.

MORE LAND NEEDED

It is the intention, if possible, to secure that parcel of land lying north of the present San Francisco Hospital and occupied by St. Catherine's Home, and construct on that land two separate buildings, one to be known as a cancer institute and the other as a psychopathic ward, with plenty of space in between to give the patients from each of these divisions ample room for sunlight, air and outdoor exercise where the physical condition of the patient will permit.

A suggestion was offered that the new buildings be constructed along the lines of a ten-story type, but this did not seem to meet with much favor. The idea prevailed that if the land is taken over and the city builds, it will continue the architectural scheme of the existing San Francisco Hospital main group. These plans necessarily are embryonic in character and may be subject to changes and adoption of new suggestions, but the general idea seems to prevail that two separate buildings would meet all requirements to better advantage.

ADDITIONAL HOSPITAL UNITS

According to the bond issue as adopted, these two buildings, including the cost of land, will entail an outlay of $863,750. There will be two additional units of forty beds each added to the Tuberculosis Preventorium at the San Francisco Health Farm which, with equipment, will cost $70,000, and the completion of necessary road work within and about the Health Farm, building of gates and fences, will cost $58,100 more.

The construction of additional units at the Laguna Honda Home, cost and equipment, $817,500, has not been discussed as yet, but it is the intention of the Board of Health to carry out fully the plans as originally submitted to the voters.

As soon as plans can be worked out arrangements will be made to proceed as fast as possible toward the adding to the existing ward buildings and to the present tuberculosis hospital on the San Francisco Hospital site at a cost of $365,000.

The Central Emergency Hospital will be enlarged and a Health Building erected on city-owned land adjoining the present site of the Central Emergency Hospital.

The Board of Health realizes the responsibility that has been placed upon it in the confidence reposed in it by the people who by such a liberal vote unhesitatingly appropriated $3,500,000 for this work.

JAMES ROLPH, JR.
Our Mayor

The most distinctive mark of a cultured mind is the ability to take another's point of view; to put one's self in another's place and see life and its problems from a point of view different from one's own. To be willing to test a new idea; to be able to live on the edge of difference in all matters intellectual; to examine without heat the burning questions of the day; to have imaginative sympathy, openness and flexibility of mind, steadiness and poise of feeling, cool calmness of judgment, is to have culture.

TO A NURSE

To be a nurse is to walk with God
Along the path that our Master trod;
To soothe the achings of human pain,
To faithfully serve for little gain.
To lovingly do the kindly deed,
A cup of water, to one in need.
A tender hand on a fevered brow,
A word of cheer to the living now;
To teach the soul through its body's woe,
Ah! this is the way that Jesus would go.
O white-capped girls in dresses of blue,
Our Great Physician's working through you!

—Mrs. A. H. Lawrence.

MISS RUBY HOWSON

 THE ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION of the San Francisco Hospital has created a $250.00 scholarship, to be awarded to one of the students of the graduating class. This honor is bestowed upon the student who, throughout her training, has achieved the best record in class work, ward work, and general conduct.

Our class, that of 1930, is the first to benefit by this scholarship, and we are very proud that RUBY HOWSON should have the privilege of taking advantage of such an opportunity.

CLASS WILL

We, the Members of the Class of 1930 _____ _____ of the San Francisco Hospital School of Nursing being supposedly of sound and disposing memory, do make and ordain this last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills made by us. We hereby bequeath the following articles of real, personal and mixed property, as follows, to wit: _____

1. I, Josephine Cronin, after duly considering the matter, bequeath to Margaret Gibson my old reliable Big Ben. You may be able to make roll call on time.
2. I, Marion Borrows, hoping it will be highly appreciated, will to Anna Miller my immaculate caps; they may serve the purpose for uniform inspections.
3. I, Maurine Niccolls, knowing that I must leave soon for parts unknown, bequeath to Pauline Detoy my qualities of supervisorship.
4. I, Elva Tanem, leaving before old age overtakes me, will to Leila Dally my masterpiece on "Why One Should Marry Young."
5. I, Esther Olsen, bequeath to Lucille Simpson my ability to boil milk twenty minutes for formulas without giving it a scorched taste.
6. I, Mary Machado, since it is all that I have to leave, will to Frances Coyne my sparkling, alluring personality.
7. I, Harriet Baptiste, bequeath to Marie Scott my ability to say the right thing at the right time in the right place.
8. I, Laura Golden, knowing that it will be of no future usefulness, will to Lois Tanisue my old reliable Lizzie.
9. I, Nona Bojko, having sworn to be of sound mind, leave to Elna Nilson my "love games" of tennis.

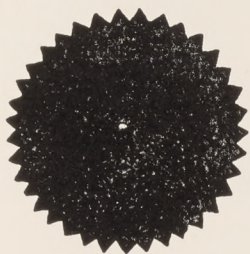

10. I, Esther Clausen, in a generous state of mind, give to Rachel Schussman the perfection of my pineapple upside-down cake.
11. I, Ruby Howson, bequeath to Diane Welch my quiet speech and manner.
12. I, Lillie Lyta, in a generous state of mind, bequeath to Mary Carpenter my collateral notes in communicable diseases.
13. I, Dorothy Clow, after duly considering matters, will to Lucille Gazse my old shoes. May she derive the ease and comfort I have had from them.
14. I, Martha Nelson, bequeath to Doris Albin my unanswered telephone calls.
15. I, Evelyn Lovine, knowing it will be highly appreciated by Miss MacIntyre, will my energy for house cleaning to Bernice Smith. Her room should now be spick and span.

A THOUGHT

There are loyal hearts, there are spirits brave,
There are souls that are pure and true;
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come to you.
Give love, and love to your heart will flow,
A strength in your utmost need;
Have faith, and a score of hearts will show
Their faith in your word and deed.

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to min'?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days o' lang syne?

TO MY MOTHER

I've kept a haughty heart thro' grief and mirth,
And borne my head perchance a thought too high;
If even a king should look me in the eye
I would not bend it humbly to the earth;
Yet, dearest mother, such the gentle worth
Of thy benignant presence, angel-mild,
It ever hath my proudest moods beguiled,
And given to softer, humbler feelings birth.
Was it thy mind's calm, penetrative power,
Thy purer mind, that secretly came o'er me,
And unto Heaven's clearer light upbore me;
Or did remembrance sting me in that hour,
With thought of words and deeds which pierced unkindly
That gentle heart, loving me still so blindly.

—Heinrich Heine.

HOW DO YOU TACKLE YOUR WORK?

How do you tackle your work each day?
Are you scared of the job you find?
Do you grapple the task that comes your way
With a confident, easy mind?
Do you stand right up to the work ahead
Or fearfully pause to view it?
Do you start to toil with a sense of dread
Or feel that you're going to do it?

You can do as much as you think you can,
But you'll never accomplish more;
If you're afraid of yourself, young man,
There's little for you in store.
For failure comes from the inside first,
It's there if we only knew it,
And you can win, though you face the worst,
If you feel that you're going to do it.

Success! It's found in the soul of you,
And not in the realm of luck!
The world will furnish the work to do,
But you must provide the pluck.
You can do whatever you think you can.
It's all in the way you view it;
It's all in the start that you make, young man,
You must feel that you're going to do it.

How do you tackle your work each day?
With confidence clear or dread?
What to yourself do you stop and say
When a new task lies ahead?
What is the thought that is in your mind?
Is fear ever running through it?
If so, tackle the next you find
By thinking you're going to do it.

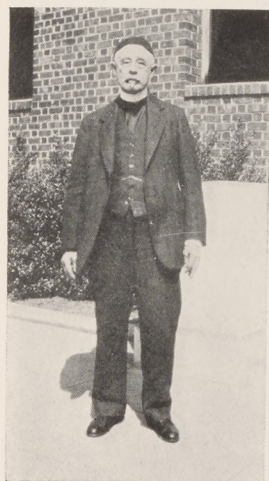

—Edgar A. Guest.

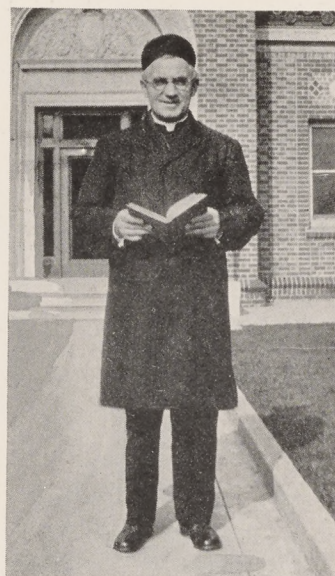

ESTHER LUDE

Dear comrade of our work and play,
With whom we shared those hours of joy;
When side by side we learned the arts.
Wisdom shows mercy to employ.
Bonds we have woven, you and me,
From days of mutual tense endeavor;
Bonds of a sympathy and love
That death is powerless to sever.

FATHER ALOYSIUS STERN, S. J.

REV. FREDERICK H. MENZEL

A MOST beneficent social influence is that of a womanly woman: one devoted to the domestic arts. The aspiration to be a Trained Nurse is, therefore, begotten of a nature true to the best traditions of womanhood.

—William M. Bours.

THE DEAD SEA is what its name implies for the reason that it receives water but does not give water. If this were not the case, its water would be sweet and not salty. You have received much in the past in preparation for a great and noble calling. My advice to you is to give much, by ministering in unselfish, loving devotion and service to the sick and distressed. Thus you will always keep sweet. God bless you!

—F. H. Menzel.

WORK is not to our shame, but to our honor. Christ gave dignity to manual labor. Work with hand and mind. Mental exertion is more fatiguing. Human society is like a body, each member has its own individual functions. Hence we speak of a calling, because God in wisdom draws and attracts. A nurse inwardly feels this inclination, and outwardly proves her aptitude. It is a mistake to imagine that time and trouble devoted to the duties of one's calling are wasted. All religious piety is false which is not subordinated to the just claims of our calling.

Motto: Ora et labora—pray and work.

EDUCATIONAL LOAN FUND

R. PERCY R. HENNESSEY, Auditor for the Department of Public Health, is our Business Manager and efficiently cares for the finances, advertising, and other vital matters that affect this Publication. The members of the Senior classes try to make each CAP AND SEAL "different" and of future value to the school.

The proceeds from the sale of this book and from the advertising have made it possible for five alumnae members to take courses in Public Health Nursing; one took a summer session at the University of California, and one finished her advanced course in Nursing.

The following figures tell an interesting story of concerted effort to reach a certain goal:

CONTRIBUTIONS

Graduates	$ 63.00

FIRST AID TO THE INJURED

 THE AMERICAN RED CROSS offers an interesting course in First Aid to the Injured. This course requires a minimum of fifteen hours of instruction. It is a combination of lectures and demonstrations of First Aid methods used in meeting the needs of emergencies. At the completion of the course a certificate is granted by the American National Red Cross.

First Aid treatment is not intended to take the place of a physician's services. A surgeon should always be summoned, as a precautionary measure, when there is an injury of any consequence, but there are times when one cannot be secured, and a few minutes' delay may mean a fatality.

In such a case, a person trained in First Aid is invaluable not only to the individual but to the community in which he lives.

How valuable is the First Aid Course to the young graduate nurse as she starts out to practice in her profession? Having been accustomed to the equipment in a hospital, and the doctors assuming all the responsibilities, she often finds herself confronted with great difficulties when she is suddenly left to her own resources.

The First Aid Course teaches the improvising of various appliances, and above all, it teaches "self-reliance," which alone is a basis for future endeavors.

The American Red Cross wants you young graduate nurses who have completed the First Aid Course of Instruction to enroll in the Red Cross and be ready to serve your country in time of disaster or war.

SOCIAL EVENTS

DEAR MAMIE: You seem to think that the life of a nurse must be very depressing, being so constantly associated with a hospital. If you could have been with us during the past year you would know that we enjoy the same pleasures as other students. The first event of the year was the initiation of the preliminary students. There were twenty-three of them, all frightened, not knowing what was in store for them. First they were blindfolded and then marched backwards up stairs and down again, through long corridors, and finally to the Social Hall, where they were all seated in a circle on the floor. Still blindfolded, they were given a bowl of long, slimy macaroni to eat with a teaspoon. All attacked their eel-like feast with some success, but less relish. After they had performed a few more antics they were deemed worthy of being accepted as preliminary students. Of course, we had "eats" and dancing.

The Hallowe'en dance, which followed shortly, was a costume party. Getting ready for it was almost as much fun as having the party. Some of us made our own costumes, and what excitement when the day of the party dawned with still half of the costumes to finish. Seeing the results, no one would ever guess how nearly some came to not having one. There were gypsies, Spaniards, French pierettes, farm boys, as well as conventional looking young Americans, and Ole the Swede, who had "just come over." The prize character was a modern version of Ichabod Crane, Dr. Burnham, dressed as a student nurse in a uniform, which vainly tried to shield his extremities. When the party was well under way a group of gypsy girls suddenly appeared on the scene and entertained the group with a ballet dance, adding to the merriment.

Another annual event was the bazaar in December. This was given for the purpose of raising money for the benefit of the sick student nurses. As usual, we had booths and booths of candy, cake, jellies, jams, hand-made little gift articles and flowers. A reckless spirit of gambling predominated in one corner, where the grab bag held the interest of a crowd at ten cents a grab. In one secluded room a fortune teller, who had the mystic art of unraveling the future to all who possessed a silver dollar, did a thriving business. Not to be outdone by anyone the Affiliated Students staged a show. This consisted of several acts, including Barnacle Bill, the sailor; a dance by Spark Plug and some more dances by other well-known characters. In competition with this, but on another avenue, the dancing class staged their show. They had arranged a series of booths, putting on a different act in each. The first was the fascinating dance of the Hindu snake charmer; next door to this were two spirits of the Arctic doing the skate dance on a pond banked with snow and trees glistening with frost.

As a contrast a little Oriental lady did the hula dance beneath the soft yellow beams of a tropical moon. No partiality was shown, as in the adjoining square a quartette of negroes did their stunts. Then followed the dance of the wooden soldiers and a dainty little fairy. As a grand finale the Christmas pageant was given, showing the old, old story of the Wise Men, the Shepherds, and the Birth of Christ. The spirit in which this was done, as demonstrated by the facial expressions, touched the audience with more Christmas spirit than mere acting could have done. The excitement of the evening reached the climax when the electric percolator, given by the seniors, and the doll dressed by the preliminary students were raffled. I almost forgot to mention the delicious cake, pie and coffee which were served all evening in the adjoining rooms.

Our Christmas party followed with the capping of the preliminary students. To them it was the event of the year, as they proudly received their caps and capes, together with congratulations of their friends. A lovely tree sparkled and glittered, beaming with Christmas spirit, as Santa Claus brought his gifts for everyone. Nuts, candy, apples, sandwiches and cake were served.

January passed by quickly enough, as everyone was busy with classes, but when February arrived St. Valentine's Day could not be ignored. A dance was held in the Nurses' Home, which was prettily decorated for the occasion.

A beach party followed in March, at which the roasted wieners and marshmallows were the most important items.

I have only told you of the "Big Events" of the year, but there have been numerous other little dinners, midnight suppers, hikes, swimming parties, and theater parties. Do you wonder if we love our school and think that there is no place quite like our home in spite of occasional grumbling about classes and "unreasonable demands."

Now I shall be waiting to hear from you all about the interesting places that you are visiting in Spain and France.

Affectionately,

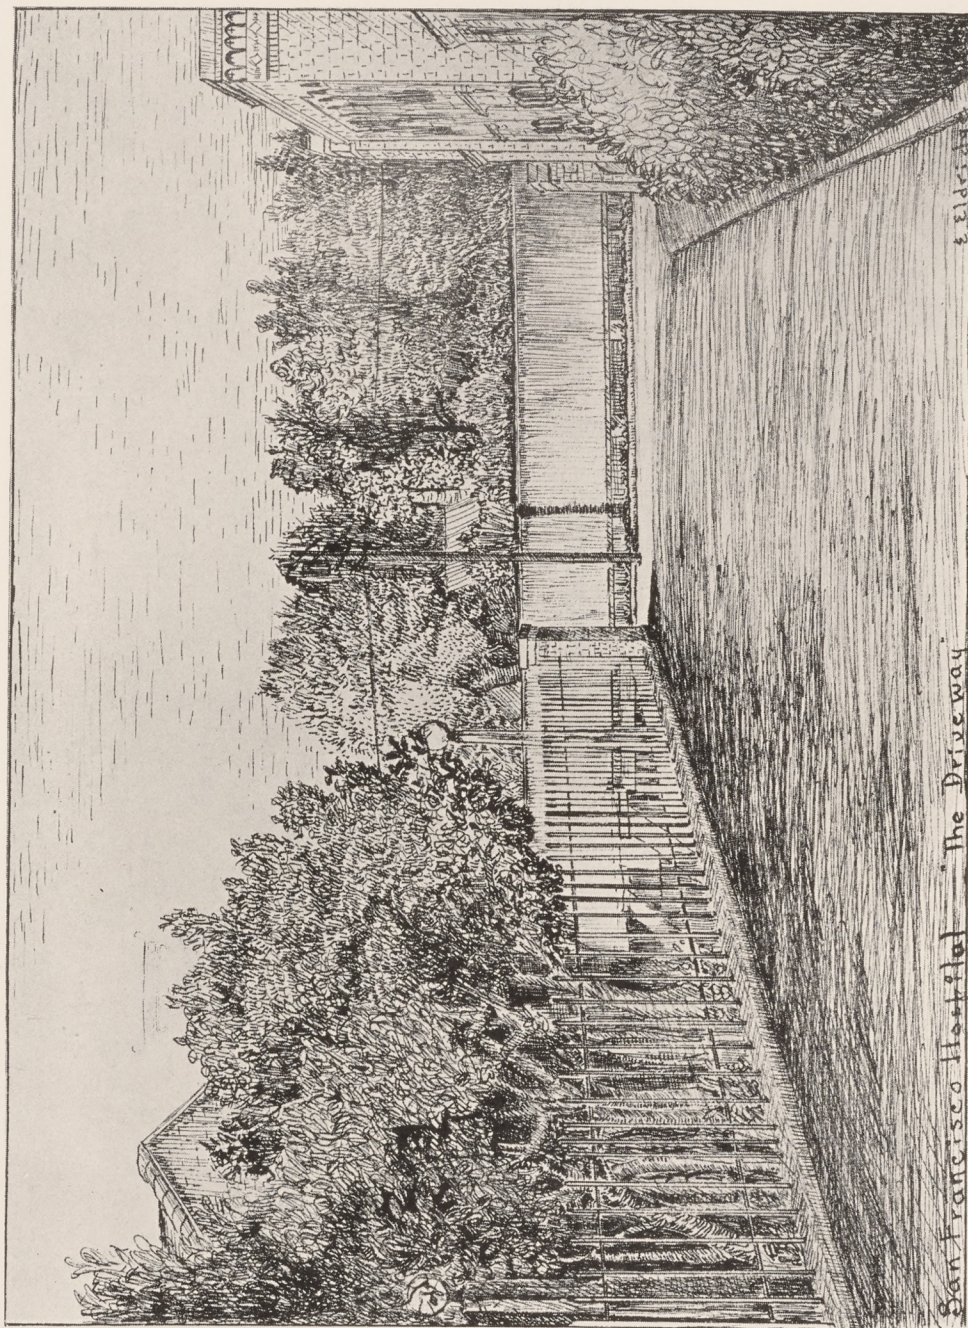

DOROTHY.

Through a long, long lane of shadows
I am wandering alone.
But a hand so gentle guides me
Through the great unknown.
And a voice seems ever whispering
Be brave and true—
At the end of the lane of shadows
There is sunshine for you.

Anne O'Loughlin, Instructing Supervisor of the Obstetric Department, has been requested to join in the work of President Hoover's White House Conference on Child Health and Protection. Miss O'Loughlin has long been interested in infant and maternal welfare. This opportunity to assist in organizing a national program for the health of the younger generation and to participate in the conference is indeed a distinct honor.

PEDIATRIC DEPARTMENT

HERE is probably no service in the Hospital which gives rise to a greater number of nursing problems than the Pediatric Department. The ward has a normal capacity of about forty-five beds, and the percentage of occupancy is always high. The patients range in age from infants a few hours old to children of twelve years. Consider the variable care these require even when well! Utter helplessness and dependability the minimum; a very small degree of co-operation the maximum. And feeding! This one is breast fed; that one is hand fed and another gets a "sixteen month" tray!

The Pediatric ward is basically pediatric, but the Surgical, Orthopedic, Nose and Throat, and other services send patients into this ward, of course. This fact adds to the complexity of the service, but all are welcome, except that bugaboo—the contagious case! When measles or some other infectious disease occurs on the ward, medical and nursing problems are multiplied tenfold.

Mrs. Bertha Starrett
Instructor in Pediatrics

The large open porch on the south of the ward is a great boon. Here pneumonia cases receive outdoor treatment; others deemed suitable receive heliotherapy, and convalescents fresh circulating air. This porch, too, makes extra nursing work and adds mileage to the daily trail, but—it's worth it!

With all its problems the Pediatric ward runs smoothly and the credit is deservedly that of the nurses. Look forward to your service here, for children rapidly sickened rapidly recover and theirs, while mute, is a none the less earnest gratitude.

down Baby Street.

Babies are everywhere
—under my feet,

Sprawled on the floor,
perched on the walls;

Babies in dydies,
in blue overalls;

Babies in rompers
of flowered cretonne;

Babies with not much
of anything on;

Little brown babies
in brown mama's laps;

Philippine babies,
Koreans and Japs;

Fresh shiny babies
right out of the tub;

Babies in scandalous
need of a scrub;

Baby Hawaiians,
the sons of a chief;

« « « DRIVE SLOW

Rastus from Africa,
black past belief;

Babies with yellor hair,
babies with brown;

Babies with just a few
patches of down;

Toddling babies
on little bowed legs;

Very new babies
much balder than eggs;

Portuguese babies
and Russian as well;

Babies whose ancestors
no one can tell.

Toothless as turkeys,
these tiny young tads,

But grinning as though they were dentifrice ads.

Walk very carefully—
make your steps hesitant—

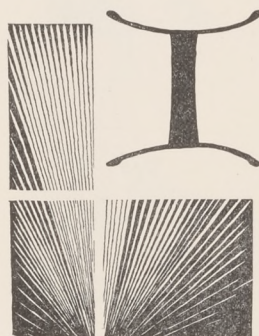

One of these babies
may some day be President.

A NEW VISION OF OBSTETRICS

By RUBY HOWSON

(Printed in The Pacific Coast Journal of Nursing.)

WONDER if every student nurse beginning her course in Obstetrics is appalled, as I was, to learn that our progressive United States has such a high maternal and infant mortality rate. I was deeply impressed with this fact; I seemed to hear it everywhere, this, and the value of pre-natal care. In our morning conferences, the lecture room, bedside clinics, and ward rounds, these facts were constantly placed before us. As my course in Obstetrics progressed I sensed a growing curiosity to learn more about the kind of life our expectant mothers lead during the nine months of pregnancy, and to see the homes to which the lovely bits of humanity were taken from our clean, well-ordered nursery.

The opportunity to satisfy this curiosity, to get advanced instruction in Obstetrics, and also to get an insight into Public Health Nursing (a field I hope to enter later) came in the form of an advanced course in our Out-Patient Obstetrics Department. Now that my course is almost over, and because I have so thoroughly enjoyed every phase of the work, I am taking you with me on a flying visit to each branch of the service.

My first morning was spent in the Pre-Natal Clinic. There a student nurse was giving a talk on the diet in pregnancy. A table spread with a white cloth held a tray of food temptingly arranged, and in the background stood a colorful poster illustrating the things that are good for a pregnant woman to eat. I learned that health talks are given the first half hour of each Clinic Morning, and that some mothers are so interested they come to hear the health talks even though they may not be due for a clinic visit. In a demonstration room adjoining, various models were displayed; a maternity dress, a bed made up for a home delivery, a breast tray, abdominal binders, newspaper pads, newspaper pans, a cornucopia for waste basket, baby layette, etc., with the cost of each article attached. One student was assigned to this room to give any instructions the mothers might request. Sixty-six expectant mothers passed through examinations that first morning.

On the first clinic visit the patient has a complete physical examination, including a Wassermann, hemoglobin test, smears, and a pregnancy history which is taken by a student nurse. Each return visit means a check-up on blood pressure, height of fundus, fetal heart tones and urinalysis. The doctor, who interviews the return visit patients, has before him the patient's complete history, including that morning's urinalysis and weight, so he is able to discuss her condition with her and give necessary advice. Some of the mothers, especially the non-English speaking group, attending clinic for the first time, appeared quite timid and bewildered until they caught the atmosphere of kindly interest that seemed characteristic of the clinic, and somehow grasped the idea that they were welcome here and that nurses and doctors were really interested in them and their problems.

It seemed to me that many little difficulties were being straightened out as the women waited for their examinations. One patient, with the help of a student, was cutting a newspaper pattern from the sample abdominal binder; another was investigating how to pad a clothes basket for the baby's bed, while two more seemed deeply interested in a box arranged as a substitute for a baby tray with discarded salad dressing jars, replacing the more expensive jars. I doubt if any of the gayly colored posters on the wall stressing the eight rules of health could fail to catch and hold the attention.

The map pegged for In-Patient and Out-Patient service intrigued me. I was impressed with the fact that the light blue pegs representing the primiparae are largely segregated in one triangle of the city, and the red pegs representing the multiparae cared for in the home, group themselves pretty much together. I intend to inquire if the reason for this is that rents are higher in one section and the families move to a locality where rents are lower as more babies come.

Fascinating as the group of mothers was, my attention was distracted by the sound of children's voices. I found a roomy corner of the clinic outfitted in a most colorful, attractive way for the entertainment of the pre-school child while his mother is going through her examination. Gay butterflies and birds fly among flowers on the wall, and jungle and domestic animals gather in unusually friendly groups. As I watched the tiny tots arranging the little blue chairs provided for them, and enjoying the plentiful supply of toys scattered about, I wondered how any mother could remain away from clinic because she did not know what to do with her pre-school child.

As soon as the clinic was over and the last patient sent on her way, I explored a corner of the office which, to be very frank, had made no appeal to me. Here was case upon case of files with records, cards, etc. I wondered if one could ever learn which belonged where, and when and why. I was assured that before the course was over I would become thoroughly acquainted with this part of the work, and would realize the importance of accuracy in keeping the records.

Having seen the procedure the patient goes through in the clinic, I was assigned to the Field Division. This department cares for the pre-natal and follow-up post-natal cases. It was such a new experience to be sent into a home to decide whether or not the patient might have her baby at home. One must weigh carefully many things in order to make sure that the case could, with safety to mother and baby, be handled at home. Of course, the student's decision is always checked by the Instructor, and we learn to place different values on many things.

Early in my course I discovered that I was to be not only a pupil, but also a teacher; that in Out-Patient Obstetrics an opportunity to teach health must never be lost. No set rule can be followed, each home is different with its need of special approach, new situations arise each day and must be tactfully dealt with. In fact, adaptability is the watchword. Often it is not only the patient herself we must consider, but the family, the relatives, and even the neighbors, with their strange superstitions and rooted beliefs, all of which influence the new mother and baby more or less.

The problem of a mutual language sometimes presented itself, for, unless she is versed in all foreign languages, the nurse in this work is sure to meet a case where much conversation goes on by means of nods, hand gestures, and smiles, resulting oftentimes in amusing situations.

A home delivery conducted without the setting of tiled walls, enameled delivery bed, abundance of sterile linen, and the appurtenances that go to make up the modern maternity department set-up, was a revelation to me. Instead of rubbing Aladdin's lamp and having the article needed appear, we simply adjusted the flashlight, for many homes lack electricity, and delving into the delivery bag, pulled out the articles conveniently placed in order of usage. It was a unique experience to hurry through deserted streets in the wee small hours to a home where an anxious family was awaiting our coming, and a satisfaction to find that pre-natal instructions had not been in vain. For in a strange, dimly lighted kitchen we often found an expectant father hovering awkwardly about trying to help by having kettles of water on heating, ready for us to begin our work.

Selecting the new baby's clothes, and taking a final survey of the mother's preparations for after care of herself and baby, are part of the nurse's duties at this time. Here, too, she often finds her chance to give a potent dose of health advice to the family, as they are so concerned with the well-being of the mother and baby, that the "mind set" is right.

Perhaps the post-partum period, when nursing care is given both mother and baby, affords the student her greatest opportunity for health teaching. She spends from one to two hours daily in the home, depending on the stage of convalescence. The doctor makes his call and gets the report left by the student nurse on the case, and so she feels a responsibility in watching for and reporting mental and physical danger signals.

She sees the mother and baby as individuals in a setting that may be reacting on them unfavorably. She must know that adjustments might be made and must report conditions to the right persons or organization. It is a reward in itself to see a worried mother finally relieved of anxiety, her milk supply she seemed in danger of losing, improved, and she herself looking hopefully forward with the home atmosphere brighter, all because of the help we understood how to get for her.

I must not forget the contacts with the little children, the pre-school tots in their homes. The nurse's visit is a great delight to most of them. They watch for her coming and like to stand by and help read the scales as the new baby is weighed. One has an opportunity to get in a bit of health teaching to this little group, to do something "for the least of my little ones." Perhaps President Hoover had just such little children in mind when he organized his White House Conference for Child Health and Protection, and said: "If we want civilization to march forward it will march only on the feet of healthy children."

At the close of my course in Out-Patient Obstetrics service I can realize the handicaps with which many children enter the world, and it is with fear and trembling that I see a woman approaching motherhood without the benefit of clinic advice and aid when it is so freely given, and is such a help in averting trouble.

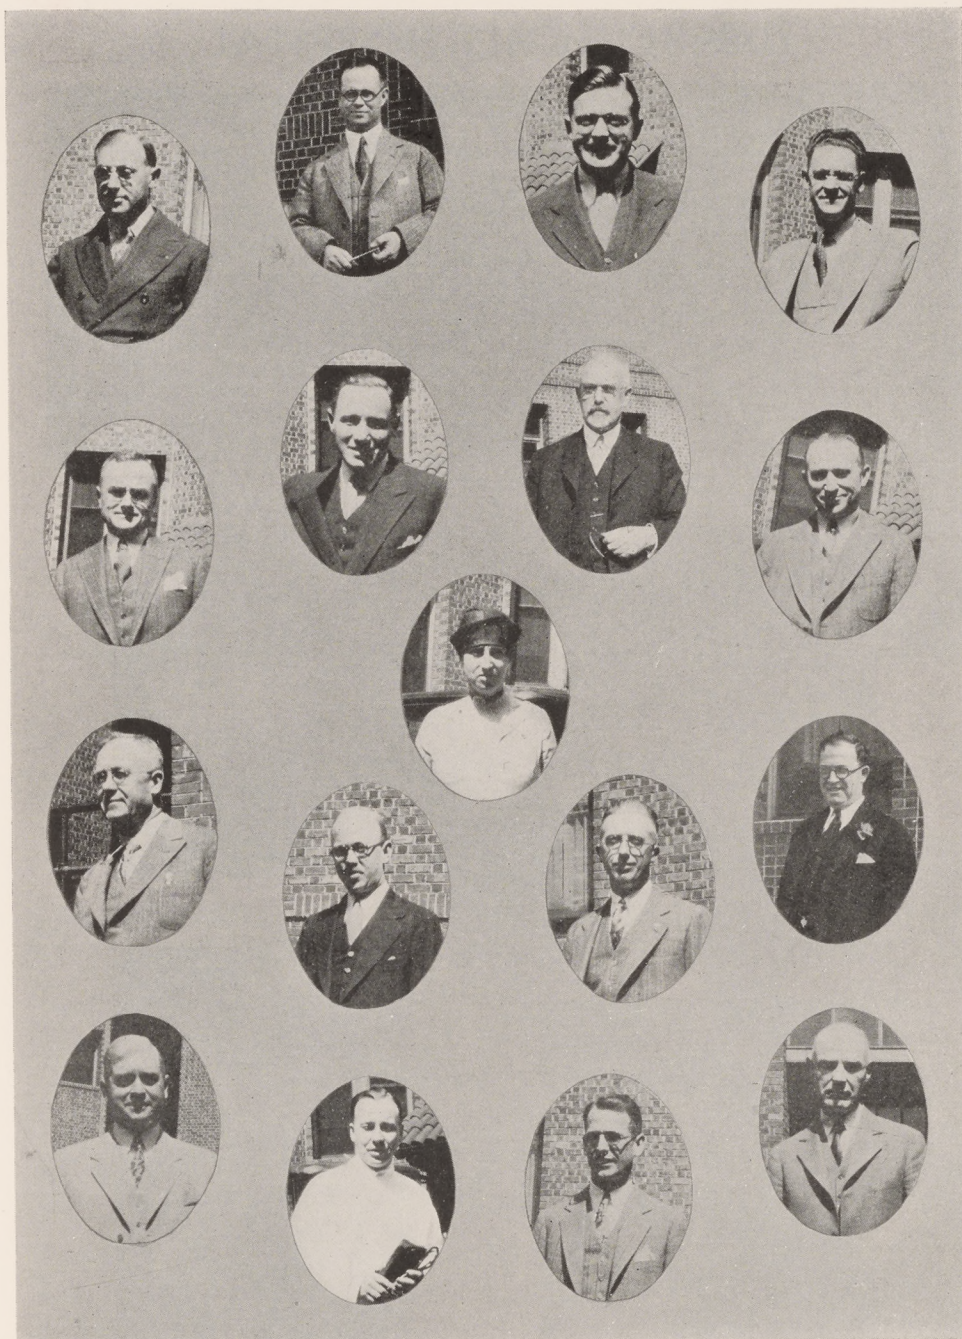

THEN AND NOW

Some twenty years ago or more,
When we had aches and pains galore,
Or "Willies" from the night before
Disturbing our digestion;
A mustard plaster, steaming hot,
Was firmly pressed upon the spot.
And shortly we had quite forgot
The trouble then in question.

Now when our pains begin to prance
The good old plaster has no chance;
They chuck us in an ambulance
With little hesitation,
And rush us off 'mid siren yells,
Rattling cars and clanging bells
To some white room where pungent smells
Suggest an operation.

If just our muscles kink or crimp,
And we, perchance, move with a limp,
If only gallstones, worms or mumps,
Or zealous heart that wildly pumps
It is an indication—
That all our friends will tell about
Some dreadful pain they had cut out,
And we will be constrained, no doubt—
To try their medication.

The day is named; the hour is set;
And old friend Doc's out to get
Some "inside information."

DIETITIANS

 THE PRINCIPLES of cookery are taught in the Diet Laboratory and the Student Nurses soon find that "There is no such thing as good luck in Cooking." Also, that a well-planned menu, properly prepared, and attractively served to the patient, has a decided psychological effect. Diet Therapy is fast replacing the tonic method of treatment for special diseases; therefore, the efficient nurse must understand diets. It is the duty of the Dietitian to teach the Student Nurse the translation of Diet Orders prescribed by the Medical Staff.

ONLY A NURSE

"Only a nurse," did someone say
 As a white-clad figure passed that way.
 With a word of cheer and a hopeful smile
 Hiding her weariness all the while.
 No task too menial, no hour too late,
 We see her courteous, calm, sedate.
 The message of love in a vale of pain,
 Guiding us back to strength again.
 "Only a nurse."

"Only a nurse," but there she stands,
 Mending tired bodies with firm, strong hands.
 Giving new vigor when all seems lost,
 Giving herself, not counting the cost.
 A thousand lives in one she lives,
 As each new day experience gives
 For God established His universe,
 Naming His re-creator "Nurse."
 "Only a nurse."

"Only a nurse," but who can find
 A nobler task for womankind?
 In daily rush of work and strife
 'Tis the nurse who cherished human life.
 Though hard the way, her duty lies
 From leaden grief to Paradise—
 Just that much higher her heart will be
 When setting sail on the golden sea.
 "Only a nurse."

A NURSE'S LIFE

I'll write you a rhyme
On the life of a nurse.
Some days are bad
And others are worse;
But here is a sample
Of one of the best—
A day when the nurses
All get a rest.

Nurse, bring me a glass
Of ice water, please.
Nurse, what can you do
For my poor sore knees?
Nurse, put the pillow
Under my head.
Nurse, I asked for hot water;
You brought cold instead.

Nurse, please push my curtains back
So I can see.
Nurse, I can't drink chocolate
I'm used to tea.
Nurse, there's not a thing
On this tray I can eat.
Nurse, please don't wash
The soles of my feet.

Nurse, here comes my doctor,
Will you comb my hair?
Nurse, what is the matter
With that patient there?
Nurse, can I please have
My bath first today?
Nurse, will you take
This bedpan away?

Nurse, I asked for a drink
An hour ago.
Nurse, shake up my pillows,
My head is too low.
Nurse, please hold my hand
While they take out my stitches.
Nurse, please scratch my leg—
It itches and itches.

Nurse, what is the matter
With my radio?
Nurse, call in the interne,
My head hurts me so.
Nurse, put down the windows,
I'm starting to cough.
Nurse, what shall I do!
I knocked my tray off.

Nurse, how old's that patient?
Go look on her chart.
Nurse, I've got a pain
Right over my heart.
Nurse, hand me my salad
Off of my tray.
Nurse, go tell my doctor
To come right away.

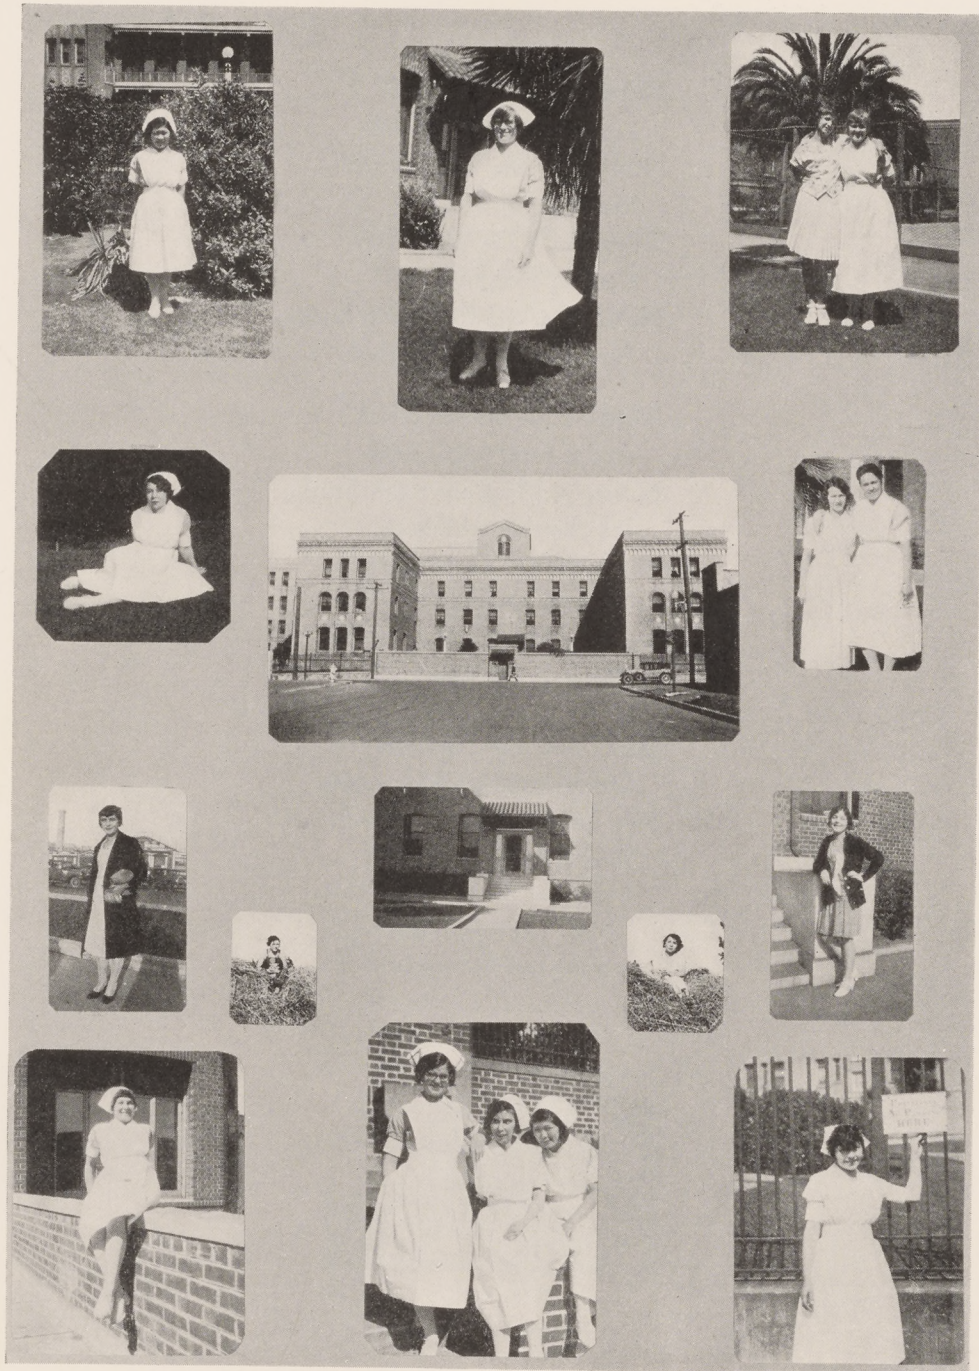

Nurse, bring me a bedpan—
Bring me one, too!
Nurse, come talk to me,
You've nothing to do.
Nurse, may I go out
In a wheel chair today?
It's not on my chart—
Can't I go, anyway?

Nurse, when do we eat?
I'm so hungry I'm weak.
Nurse, my hot water bottle
Has sprung a leak.
Nurse, isn't the paper boy
Coming tonight?
Nurse, I asked for brown bread
And they gave me white.

Nurse, I ate my ice cream
And I want some more.
Nurse, pick up my tooth brush,
It's there on the floor.
Nurse, is my temperature
Normal tonight?
Nurse, will you please
Turn on the light?

Well, here's to the health
Of the hard-working nurse.
Her lot could be better,
And it could be worse.

VERSE AND WORSE

3 A. M. IN THE HOSPITAL

It's 3 o'clock in the morning,
I've been busy the whole night through.
Emergencies, lights, and babies;
There's no respite, 'tis true.
Daylight soon will be dawning,
The temps must be taken, too.
I could go right on forever—
But I'll be darned if I do.

MY FOURS

4 nice mud guards,
4 wheel brakes,
4 sleek snubbers,
When she shakes.

4 new pistons,
4 plugs, too,
4 wide doors
To enter through.

4 fine, bright lights,
How they shine;
4 more payments,
Then she's mine.

—Dr. Strong.

If the surgeon makes a slip,
It is the fault of the instrument.
If the physician makes a slip,
It is the beginning of a new theory.
If the interne makes a slip,
It is what is expected.
If the supervisor makes a slip,
It is because she has too many things on her mind.
If the senior makes a slip,
It is the fault of the junior.
But if the probie makes a slip—
"Good-bye!"

HEARD ON THE WARDS

AND IN THE CORRIDORS

Mrs. Logee—"What did you learn about the salivary glands?"

Miss Schmitz—"I could not find out a thing. They're so terribly secretive."

Mrs. Miller—(In Emergency and First Aid)—"What would you do in the case of a person's eating poisonous mushrooms?"

Bernice Smith—"Recommend a change of diet."

Dr. Gaspar—"I'm going to buy myself a harem."

Miss Baptiste—"What do you mean? You can't buy a harem, can you?"

Dr. Gaspar—"Sure, I saw a sign at a gas station—six gals for a dollar."

Miss Hawkins—"Yes, a few lettuce leaves without oil, and a glass of orange juice. That completes your daily diet."

Miss Thomson—"Thank you so much, but do I take this before or after meals."

Dr. Blackfield—"Why don't you answer me?"

Miss Fidler—"I did, doctor—I shook my head."

Dr. Blackfield—"But you don't expect me to hear it rattle a-way up here, do you?"

Dr. Seivers—"About nine patients out of ten don't live through this operation. Is there anything I can do for you before I begin?"

Dusky Patient—"Yes sah! Kindly hand me mah hat."

Dr. Marshall—"When you take your wife's temperature, she must place the thermometer under her tongue and keep her mouth closed for two minutes."

Mr. Jones—"Haven't you one that takes half an hour?"

Miss Morrill—"If oats are given a horse immediately after hard work or exercise, what happens?"

Miss Simpson—"He eats."

Pulling all the teeth may not cure all diseases, but it will prevent people from talking about them.

Dr. Van Deventer—"Wanna fly?"
Mary Machado—"Oo-o-oh yeh!"
Dr. Van Deventer—"Wait! I'll catch one for you."

Miss Albin—"What's an operetta?"
Miss Carpenter—"Don't be foolish—it's a girl who works for the telephone company."

Miss Ghiotti—"Now, Miss Ambrosine, when you bathe the babies, be sure and use the thermometer to test the water."
An hour later—"Did you use the thermometer?"
Miss Ambrosine—"Oh no, I can tell without that. If it's too hot, the baby turns red, and if it's too cold, he'll turn blue."

Dr. Kelly—"I see that in London a man is run over every half hour."
Miss Avilla—"Poor man!"

Miss Lovine—"Dorothy, it seems that you should be more conscientious."
Miss Clow—"Conscientious! Why, I just sit and worry myself sick because I don't go home and study."

Laura Golden—"It's snowing and sleeting and I'd like to buy some chains for my tires."
Clerk—"I'm sorry; we keep only groceries."
Laura Golden—"How annoying, I understood this was a chain store."

Dr. Wynne—(Showing a visitor the hospital and pointing to Ward M): "This is the bawl room."

A NEW ONE

Chain hospitals are being urged as a step toward lowering the cost of surgical attention.

Operating rooms of the future will display signs, no doubt, saying:

Tonsils removed.....	10c
Appendectomies (special today).....	25c
Amputations (extra fancy).....	15c
Fractures (per dozen).....	20c

Boils lanced free with every order.

WHOOOP-EE

Wit, Wisdom and Wisecracks

The "Probies" think that nurses should not be satisfied until they have overcome that "Eagle" which exists within themselves.

A New Year's resolution is the most perishable thing in the world next to a hair net.

"Egotism is the anesthesia that keeps some people on living terms with themselves."

As the colored boy said when he read the inscription: "Not dead, but sleeping," on the tombstone: "He ain't foolin' nobody but hisself."

Ex.—"I had to leave school on account of pneumonia."

Grad.—"Yeah?"

Ex.—"Yeah, I couldn't spell it."

The doctor found that the grocery boy's ear, which had been painning him, was full of water. "How did that happen?" he asked. "Have you been bathing?"

"No," replied the boy. "Been eatin' watermelon."

"A call to the country?" asked the specialist.

"Yes, I can go out there today. I have another patient there, and I can kill two birds with one stone."

Chiropractor—"I had a patient today whose spine——"

Wife—"Stop! I don't want to hear any more of your back talk."

John Smith was never known to be on time for an appointment. Even when he died they called him "the late John Smith."

Traffic Officer—"Don't you know you can't turn around in the middle of the block?"

Miss Cronin—"Oh, I think I can make it. Thank you so much."

The human brain is a wonderful organ. It starts working the moment we get up in the morning, and doesn't stop until we get on duty.

Charlie (in poetic frenzy)—"Roll on thou deep blue ocean, roll!"

Frank—"Oh, how wonderful you are! Look, it's doing it!"

"The head learns new things, but the heart forevermore practices old experiences."

He that ruleth his spirit is better than he who ruleth a city.

A British scientist predicts that in time to come men will be born toothless. We thought, in our ignorance, that they were usually born that way.

BE NONCHALANT AND GRIN

When Mrs. Tutty catches you sitting on the table.
When you walk in five minutes late. *
If you flunk in an exam.
If you give a treatment to the wrong patient.
When you miss student body assembly.
When Dr. Schulze says, "I wish you would give me sutures that don't break."
When Miss Hansen catches you making a cake in the diet lab.
When Miss Lane says, "Don't you girls ever clean your shoes?"

WHAT A PERSON I WOULD BE IF I HAD—

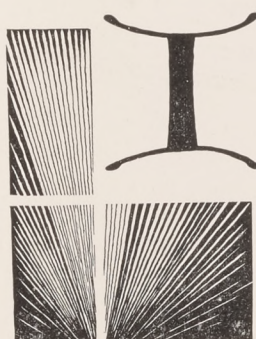

The enthusiasm of Mary Machado.
Luda Kourbatoff's complexion.
The worldly manner of Laura Golden.
Maurine Niccoll's walk.
Frances Coyne's smile.
The nonchalance of Miss Gilbert.
Dora Ambrosine's giggle.
Rose Roberts' hair.
Mary Carpenter's ability to argue.
The egotism of the average interne.

THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN

Miss MacIntyre losing her temper.
No roll call.
Dr. Norman smoking cigarettes in the wards.
Swimming pool ready for use.
Nurses' Home 'phone not busy.
Jo Cronin's cap on straight.
No interest in pay checks.
Dr. Eloesser chewing gum.
Dr. Strong throwing instruments on the floor.

NURSES' ALUMNAE

ALICE HERKENHAM, President
NORA LANE, Vice President
LOIS GRAY, Secretary-Treasurer

IN THE latter part of 1903, a group of Graduate Nurses of the City and County Hospital, now named the San Francisco Hospital, met in the Nurses' Home, organizing an association to be known as the Nurses' Alumnae, San Francisco Training School.

Five members were elected as directors to guide its existence for the year. There have been many changes in the officers since that time, but all working with the same interest and purpose—good-fellowship—to protect and assist our members, and for educational advantages. Meetings are held once a month, followed by a social hour always enjoyed by those present. We have sent flowers to our sick members and helped others financially when necessary.

The San Francisco Hospital Nurses Alumnae has established an annual scholarship of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) for educational purposes. This scholarship is intended for the honor member of each year's graduating class.

This year we are presenting to Miss Ruby Howson, the honor member of this year's class, the first of these scholarships that she may continue her education at the University of California. We have worked hard to accomplish this gift, and through the efforts of our committees we have been successful. There is still much to be done, and it is only through the interest and co-operation of our members that our plans can be carried out.

We want every graduate of the San Francisco Hospital School of Nursing to join the Alumnae to help us do this. Send in your application so that enrollment may be 100 per cent.

—Alice Herkenham, R. N., President, Alumnae.

GOOD NIGHT

By NANCY BYRD TURNER

Good-night, sleep well, beloveds, when the last
Slow dusk has fallen, and your steps no more
Make music on the empty upper floor,
And day is fully past.

We who so lightly let you go alone,
Evening by evening, from our trustful sight
Into the mystery of sleep's unknown—
We need not fear, tonight.

Death is so gentle—dark will break to dawn;
Love will be safe until the morning light.
Sleep well, good-night!

DO YOU KNOW » » »

That we have a reference library in the Nurses' Home of which we have cause to be proud?

That during the past year we have added sixty-six new books to the library?

That among these books are not only valuable texts, but also references which are as interesting as fiction? Read these books, for example, and verify this statement:

NURSES, PATIENTS, AND POCKETBOOKS, by May Ayers Burgess—
A book which is discussed with great interest in medical, nursing, and lay circles.

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE AMERICAN NURSES' ASSOCIATION, by Virginia McCormick—An account of the fulfillment of the hopes and dreams of our nursing leaders.

AEQUANIMITAS, by Sir William Osler—A group of addresses to medical students, nurses, and practitioners of medicine regarding ethics, history, philosophy, education, etc., in relation to our professions.

PROBLEM CHILD IN SCHOOL, by Mary B. Sayles and Howard W. Nudd—A collection of narratives from case records of visiting teachers.

TWENTY YEARS AT HULL HOUSE, by Jane Addams—A fascinating account of the development and work of visiting and school nurses and of the social workers at Hull House.

PARENTS ON PROBATION, by Miriam Van Waters—A social worker probes into the cause of problem children and suggests means of preventing and correcting maladjustments. This book was reviewed over the radio by Rabbi Newman and was recommended by him to all parents.

That the following magazines are received monthly or quarterly and are invaluable to the student nurses?

AMERICAN JOURNAL OF NURSING,
HYGEIA,
JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION,
MENTAL HYGIENE,
PACIFIC COAST JOURNAL OF NURSING,
THE PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE,
TRAINED NURSE AND HOSPITAL REVIEW,
THE WELFARE,
THE MODERN HOSPITAL.

That we have just had ten volumes of magazines bound?

*The CAP AND SEAL, our book supreme,
Is to us all a work most keen,
With pictures, jokes and anecdotes,
Fond memories jotted down in notes.
And who should be its Sponsors true,
The "Board of Health"—Advertisers, too.*

*Appreciation and thanks most kind
The Senior Class extends to them
And to the readers of this book
All products we commend to them.*

M. NELSON, '30.

REVELATION TOOTH POWDER

Never in Paste Form

The primary cause of receding, bleeding and sensitive gums is GLYCERINE and for that reason alone Revelation is never in paste form.

GLYCERINE saps the moisture from the gum tissues. This moisture in the cellular tissue is as essential to the membrane, that covers the roots of the teeth, as the capillaries that supply the blood.

Ask your physician if this is not true!

REVELATION corrects these gum ailments and is an absolute cleanser—containing no glycerine, grit or corrosive compound.

These facts are based upon the recent discoveries of vitamins in the milk, now making more definite previously known facts and establishing scientifically our knowledge that milk is a perfect food and carries the recommendation of the medical fraternity.

A quart of milk a day in the dietary of the growing child makes an ideal food ration.

The quality and not the price of milk should receive consideration in the purchase of milk.

... and the cupboard was bare!

Charming permanent guest rooms overlooking Union Square . . . at rates that won't start a pulse racing.

What of it . . . with the Plaza serving those savory special dinners for $1, and those delightful 50c luncheons! House-keeping isn't worth while when one's time at home is uncertain. Come and be the honored guests of the Plaza. You bring us our trays when we're sick (as palatable as the M.D.s will let you). It's our turn to bring you yours . . . with no limit on the savoriness.
